

FEBRUARY 4, 1837.

Read twice, and committed to a Committee of the Whole House to-morrow.

Mr. RUSSELL, from the Committee of Claims, reported the following bill:

A BILL

For the relief of Robert Keyworth.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he hereby is, authorized
4 to pay to Robert Keyworth, of the District of Columbia, out of 5 any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum 6 of one thousand seven hundred and forty-seven dollars and 7 ninety-two cents, in full satisfaction of his claim for making six
8 swords, under a contract with General Alexander Macomb, executed the ninth of May, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-
9 five, authorized by resolution of Congress, passed the thirteenth 10 February, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and for 11 all extra work, materials found, and machinery employed, in 12 making the same; upon condition that said Robert Keyworth
13 deliver to the Secretary of War, for the time being, the sword
14 originally made under said contract, but which was not ap-15 proved.
